Agape Center

2410 Gardner Drive – (314) 867-5900

Children, Teen, Adult Coordinator of Arts

I organized and created a dance and theater group in which multiple performances were done in acting and dance. I help develop children across the area of the community to bring out their gifts and talents to help them see more opportunities for their future. This included confidence builders, talent shows and live performances, team work exercises, leadership training, and multiple fitness activities.
