MY CAREER HIGHLIGHTS...

Hi! My name is Bethany Nicole and I am an LA-based author, freelance writer, and relationship expert.

I am the author of the book, Apologies I Never Got, which is a book about dating and relationship horror stories, phrased as apologies you never got, from the people who never gave them to you. I was recently named as one of the Top 25 Authors in Los Angeles by Los Angeles Entrepreneur's Magazine.

I also am currently a Content Writer for Reality Blurb and was also previously a Content Writer with Monsters and Critics where I write relationship predictions and analyses as well as news for reality tv shows such as Married At First Sight and 90 Day Fiancé. I utilize basic compatibility concepts as well as Love Languages, Astrology, and even Tarot to help make predictions and analyses of a couple's success.

I am a Contributing Writer to Millionaires 123, the website for Patti Stranger or the "millionaire matchmaker" as she is commonly known.

I have done multiple Podcast Interviews on the subject of dating and relationships and consistently give informative, entertaining, and on-topic interviews and performances.

I have several published articles on the topic of relationships and dating, all available to view through my website.

The best way to view my work is to view my online portfolio at www.bethanynicole.com or my LinkedIn page. (Link listed above)

TO ANSWER YOUR QUESTION:

I always understand the assignment: I help weave the amorphous concepts of love, emotions, drama, and intrigue into on-brand articles, interviews, and attention-grabbing stories. I am committed to my work and writing and am always striving to reach peak performance.

I would love to combine my background and experience to present at your show or event.

Thank you for your time and consideration,

Bethany
