

FIDELITY CLAUSE

Logline

A former model-turned-entrepreneur once had the world at her fingertips, now she has to grasp a world of torment; her cheating psychiatrist husband blurs the line between Psychotherapist and Psycho, when he resorts to mind games and unscrupulous schemes, intent on framing her of adultery and escaping his vows free & clear.

Synopsis

After the ceremony concludes at a rainy funeral, two friends stroll the grounds; reminisce and rehash memories of their past lives and their dearly departed loved one...while two others use the cemetery parking lot to have a sultry indiscretion, in the backseat of a car

Once, -to her a lifetime ago AND just yesterday, an exuberant (ex)model-turn-entrepreneur had it ALL; a dynamic matchmaking enterprise, a magazine venture and an adoring husband..she thought was perfect..

Perfect..if not for the overbearing personality traits of an insecure, controlling, obsessive compulsive..other than that..& hindsight IS 20/20

An extremely attractive, prominent PhD-Psychiatrist/psychologist -HE's used to getting everything he wants; a Residency at the preeminent medical facility of an upscale community; The woman of his dreams and getting her to walk away from her career..HE JUST ISN'T FINISHED YET!

"Living the dream", having everything isn't enough, he must have more! Namely, a seductive temptress, half his age (whenever he wants) and a luxurious, unfettered life without his wife, who he no longer desires

BUT, he can't just divorce her, he'll have to split everything, maybe even pay alimony ..HE WANTS IT ALL!

Another major problem he faces (short of killing her)is a product of his OWN distrust (& self-doubt) -a "little" SUPERSEDING "Stipulation" HE included with their prenuptial agreement -the Fidelity Clause

If he gets caught in an affair and they divorce, HE LOSES EVERYTHING! So, SHE must get caught cheating.. another problem..she only wants her husband!

But with sleazy sex'capades feeding his ferocious lust, discrete collaborations seeding his schemes and psychotropic drugs at his disposal, it's evident he will stop at nothing to achieve his goals.

Although his unscrupulous "psychological warfare" tactics -including illicitly drugging his wife, are effective against her, they are fraught with flaws; thoughtless in many ways -but are inadvertently deadly!
